CDHRA is one of a network of 575 affiliated SHRM chapters.

CDHRA serves to provide local networking and professional development opportunities for our members.

Each chapter reports to into a State Council; our chapter president is our representative to the State Council.
• Each state is governed by a state council with a state council director (John Friend), who reports up to a regional council.

• Our State councils typically hold meetings at each chapter throughout the year to discuss issues and challenges, pending legislation, the HR profession, and how SHRM supports these.

• State councils engage in activities that raise the visibility and credibility of the HR profession and SHRM in the state.
